PROGRAM AGENDA

8:00 Registration

8:30 Unlocking the Mysteries of the CSEA Administrative Processes

The child support enforcement agencies (CSEAs) use administrative processes for expedited, cost-free services to families for paternity establishment, support establishment, enforcement and modification of orders, and termination of orders. We will discuss the current administrative processes, as well as pending changes to streamline our processes and increase consistency county to county.

Amy S. Roehrenbeck; Esq.; Ohio Child Support Directors' Association; Columbus

Ryann Levering-White; Esq.; Ohio Child Support Directors' Association; Columbus

9:30 The Ten Commandments of Cross-Examination: A Baker's Dozen

Except for legendary figures such as Clarence Darrow and Edward Bennett Williams, virtually no one in the legal profession can do a brilliant cross-examination of an adverse witness. But most lawyers, with the right training, can do a competent job. This presentation sets out 13 rules that can be used by ordinary lawyers to conduct a sound and effective cross-examination of each and every witness without exception and, as important, without embarrassment!

Mark E. Sullivan, Esq; Sullivan & Tanner, P.A.; Raleigh, NC

10:30 Break

10:45 Uniform Interstate Family Support Act

This presentation is an overview of UIFSA, from initial jurisdiction and the eight separate tests which may establish the court's power over the case, to the meaning of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction, to the effect of registration of one court's support order in another state. Other topics include when a court order can be modified in another state, how to go about it, what issues are non-modifiable, how attorney fees are handled, relaxed rules for evidence, and choice of law issues.

Mark E. Sullivan, Esq.

11:45 Lunch (on your own)

12:45 Recent Developments in Military Pension Division: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

Dealing with military pension division cases has just turned into "life in the fast lane." Or, if you make a mistake, "life in the oncoming lane." Three major changes have taken place within a one-year period.

- In December 2016, the Uniformed Services Former Spouses' Protection Act was amended to change what retired pay can be divided at the retired pay center; it is now a "frozen benefit" as of the divorce date; not the full pension. This is change in the law of 40-45 states.
- On May 15, 2017, the Supreme Court ruled that a judge may not order indemnification when the retiree's election of VA disability compensation cuts the pension share of the former spouse.
- And on January 1, 2018, the new Blended Retirement System will provide three additional changes to compensation and retired pay which will have an impact on the family law judge.
- This program lets the audience learn about the radical rewrite of the Uniformed Services Former Spouses' Protection Act which eliminated the "Time Rule" previously used by most states to divide pension benefits.

Mark E. Sullivan, Esq.

2:15 Break

2:30 Practical Professionalism, Substance Abuse and Ethics from the View of the Practitioner (Professional Conduct)

This presentation will discuss the philosophy of the Ohio Supreme Court's Statement on Professionalism. The concepts of Professionalism are the pathways to ethical behavior. Professional relationships with clients, lawyers and judges are the first steps to successful navigation through the ethical minefields of the Rules of Professional Conduct. This presentation endeavors to help the Family Law practitioner better understand the letter and the spirit of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct.
